O'Brien Woods Interpretive Trail
Teaching Circle/Fire Pit
Rustic Camping Area

Looking for something a little different for Pack, Den or Troop Meetings? Or a camping adventure close to home?

For only $35 you can reserve the Teaching Circle for your next outing!

Located across from the wetland next to the library, is a self-guided nature trail and teaching circle complete with a fire pit surrounded by wooden benches. This area can accommodate up to 100 people.

Scout leaders and teachers will appreciate the abundance of educational and environmental opportunities this circle and path can provide. It is the ideal setting for scout activities, service projects and ceremonial events.

A rustic camping area is available for scout groups who would like to experience a camping adventure close to home.

These areas can be reserved by scout groups and teachers only.

For more information, call the Bartlett Nature Center at 847-608-3100.
